COMMITTEE AND TRUSTEES MEET

Submit Report of Contributions Received for New Hospital.

REMARKABLE RECORD

Committee to Be Appointed on Site and Plans by Chairman Hulfish, of Board of Trustees.

The Executive Committee of the hospital fund met with the Board of Trustees of the hospital last night and presented their report, which showed that, outside of the city's contribution, $35,763.14 had been contributed toward the hospital fund.

The committee was continued, to close up outside business and to arrange to have the pledges put in proper shape so that they could be used in the purchase of land and erection of the hospital.

Chairman Worth Hulfish, of the Board of Trustees, was authorized to appoint a committee on site and one on plans, which committees will be announced later.

Adding the five thousand dollars, that the city will give, to the amount secured through other sources the amount totals $40,763.14, a most remarkable record for a city the size of Alexandria in the time in which the effort has been made and the city and its neighbors and friends are to be congratulated upon the success of the work that has been done. The receipts today, not including the above totals $30.05, of which the Ladies' Guild, of Immanuel Chapel, Braddock Heights, contributed $12.55 and St. Rita's Catholic Church, of Mount Ida, Alexandria county, $20.00.

The Executive Committee through Mr. Brockett this morning completed arrangements with the management of Luna Park by which the entire day on the Fourth of July will be devoted to a family and patriotic picnic at Luna Park, the proceeds of the dancing pavilion and carousal to be given to the hospital. While the program has not been absolutely decided upon, as the committees will have to be appointed by Chairman Brocket to take charge of the various events, it is proposed to have a lot of amateur sports for which liberal prizes will be offered. There will be speeches by national and local orators in the forenoon and probably at night and every effort will be made to bring to the park one of the largest crowds ever gathered there. Of course, there will be no charge for admission and the management of the park have kindly agreed to furnish the dancing pavilion, merry-go-round, the grounds for the picnic, necessary music for the occasion, and in addition have added $30.00 in gold to be distributed among the contestants for the various prizes, as may be decided on by the committee. The committee is also to have entire charge of the financial matters and to appoint their ticket sellers and collectors and are not to be put to any expense other than providing the printed matter for the occasion.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The judgment of the lower court sentencing Harry Spencer to death for the murder of Mrs. Mildred Rexroat the dancing teacher, has been affirmed by the Supreme Court of Illinois, which set July 31 as the date for his execution. Mrs. Rexroat, from whom Spencer had taken tango lessons, was lured from Chicago by him to a lonely road near Wayne, Dupage county, Ill., and there killed by a blow of a hammer .

Two hundred members of the House Representatives, tied up fast in a deadlock, brought on by a point of no quorum made late yesterday afternoon, passed the time singing songs to the great delight of the occupants of the galleries. Under the rules the House could not adjourn in the absence of a quorum, and those who were present had to stick to the job until a late hour. Members relieved the tedium of the situation by breaking into song and indulging in other forms of horse play that usually mark the closing hours of a session .

From a well-informd Dutch quarter it is learned that diplomatic negotiations are actively on foot between the governments of Holland, Switzerland, Denmark and Sweden for the formation of a union of the small nations of Europe. The object is to preserve the effective neutrality of the constituent states and to unite their military and naval forces for common action in the event of any one of them being attacked by a greater power. Norway and Belgium are sympathetically inclined toward the project .

BRIGANDS SACK A CHINESE CITY

Ten Thousand Natives Reported to Have Been Put to Death.

PLAN A REVOLUTION

Agitators Are Moving Throughout Country Endeavoring to Further the Movement.

Shanghai, June 17.—Reports received here today that the White Wolf Brigands had captured and sacked the city of Taochow, massacring 10,000 Chinese.

There was no confirmation here of the report, but uneasiness was felt among foreigners because the report also said that the mission buildings there were burned.

It is known that the White Wolf band has been operating in that vicinity and frequent reports of outrages have been received.

San Francisco, June 17.—All up and down the Pacific coast plans are said to be ripening in the various oriental colonies for another revolution in China. The same movement is being pushed elsewhere throughout the country, but it is on the coast that it has made the greatest progress.

The campaign is said to be under the general direction of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who was first provisional president of the present republic and was mainly responsible for the revolution which overthrew the Manchus. Sun is an exile in Japan and President Yuan Shikai is reported to have offered $1,000,000 for his head.

In the United States the agitating is being done by Y. P. Kaieh, for wohm, dead or alive, Yuan is understood to have offered $100,000.

SUIT FOR TRACT OF LAND.

Town Stands Upon Two Hundred Acres Claimed.

Freeling, Va., June 17.—At the recent term of United States court, held in Catlettsburg for the eastern district of Kentucky, a suit was heard involving a 200-acre tract of land upon which the mining town of Jenkins stands, and which, with the improvements upon it, is valued at $1,500,000. This suit was brought by William Filmore Addington and his wife, Nancy Ann Addington, of Wise, Va., against the Consolidation Coal Company to recover the realty which, through a technicality of conveyance, has become legally entangled.

The grounds upon which the action was brought are somewhat tedious and date from 1860, when the father of Mrs Addington, Solomon Bentley, died in Pike county, Ky., leaving the tract of land now in dispute to his wife and only heir, the latter to have two-thirds of the tract, and the widow the remaining one-third. According to the stipulation of the will, the daughter, at the age of 21, became possessed of the land. During the interim she had married William Filmore Addington.

Some years after the death of Bentley, his widow remarried, and on June 3, 1884, she, her husband and Mrs. Addington joined in a conveyance of the land in question to John W. Wright, better known as "Devil John." This deed of conveyance was acknowledged, but was not executed under seal; neither did Addington enter into the conveyance. Later Wright sol dthis tract, with others, to the Northern Coal and Coke Company, who in turn transferred their holdings to the Consolidation Coal Company.

Now the plaintiffs seek to have the deed of conveyance set aside on the grounds that the wife could make no legal conveyance, as under the laws of the State of Kentucky the husband must join with the wife in a deed of conveyance when the property comes through her hands.

The Aggies will trot out Roy Edieness, the big blonde twirler, and "Dutch" Frazier, as receiver, and as the high position which the team holds is due to the high class work of this battery, a pitcher battle may be looked for in Saturday's game.

SPLIT IN RANKS OF THE REBELS

Break Between Carranza and Villa Complicates Situation.

VILLA HOLDS JUAREZ

Mediators Expect Fruit of Their Labors by Friday—Outcome as Uncertain as Ever.

El Paso, Texas, June 17.—The constitutionalist ranks in northern Mexico are split, according to well authenticated reports.

A serious break between Carranza, first chief, and Pancho Villa, great military leader and "man of the hour in Mexico," has come. Just how serious this break is, or will become, is not definitely known.

Villa's adherents are in control of Juarez. They are said to also hold power in Torreon and Chihuahua.

Friends of Villa, who declare they are speaking for him, say the military leader has no intention of causing a break in the constitutionalist ranks. They say the apparent breach was brought about by a misunderstanding of Villa's orders, by his subordinates, and that the subordinates alone are responsible. He will not break with Carranza, they say.

Nevertheless Villa's adherents today are holding Juarez and but meager reports can be received. American correspondents were warned early that it would be healthier for them on the northern shore of the Rio Grande, and they took the hint.

A battle between the Mexican rebel gunboat Tampico and the federal gunboat Guerresco near Topolopambo was reported by Admiral Howard to the Navy Department today. He said the Tampico has probably been sunk as result of the engagement and that the captain and chief engineer of the Tampico had committed suicide when they saw the battle turning against them.

Niagara Falls, Ontario, June 17.—Deadlocked today by apparently irreconcilable differences, the A. B. C. mediators, who are attempting here to settle Mexican troubles, expect to know whether their attempt is to end in futility or to continue with hope on Friday, when the next full conference of the mediators with the American and Mexican delegates will be held.

Then, it was expected, either some agreement as to a provisional president for Mexico would be reached or the conferences would be abandoned.

KIDNAPPING IS CHARGED.

Man and Woman on Trial at Leesburg, Va., Are Alleged to Have Stolen Child.

Frederick, Md., June 17.—John T. Bellison and Mrs. Nona Grubb have been placed on trial at Leesburg, Va., charged with kidnapping the 3-year-old son of Mrs. Grubb from the home of its aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Grubb. The alleged kidnapping is said to have taken place on September 30, 1913.

According to the testimony of the State, Mr. and Mrs. Grubb's a Miss Wyan and Mrs. Nona Grubb's son were in the dining room of the Grubb home near Leesburg when a masked man with a revolver in each hand entered through a window. A woman, also masked, entered the room behind the man and while the man covered the family with the revolvers she is alleged to have seized the boy, who was in Mrs. Charles Grubb's lap, and tried to drag him away. During the struggle the man kept the others away. The masked woman finally wrenched the child from its aunt and escaped through the window. The witnesses declared that Bellison and Mrs. Grubb were the man and woman.

Some time ago Wilbert T. Grubb, husband of Mrs. Nora Grubb, charged Bellison with being too attentive to his wife. They met in Brunswick and a fight ensued. Bellison was arrested and convicted of assault with intent to kill, but was pardoned by the Governor. His pardon had hardly taken effect until he was arrested by the Virginia authorities charged with burglary and kidnapping.

Wendenburg to represent this, the Third district of Virginia, in the congress of the United States, in yesterday's Democratic primary by a majority which will easily reach 5,500 out of a vote of about 10,000, when the full returns are in. The first returns received early last night were indicative of the result, and as the totals poured in Montague's majority increased. It was a veritable landslide.

A total of 8,318 votes were cast in all of the precincts heard from. Of this number, Montague received 6,639,, and Wendenburg 1,679, giving Montague a grand majority of 4,960. In the city of Richmond, where all precincts reported, a total of 7,027 votes were cast. Montague receiving 5,546, and Wendenburg, 1,481. Montague's majority in the city, therefore, was 4065.

MISCHIEVOUS BOYS

Washington Youths Cause Excitment on North Washington Street Last Night.

People residing on Washington street, between Oronoco and Wythe, were aroused at a late hour last night by what they supposed were pistol shots coming from motorcycles which were speeding along. It was immediately divined that Washington visitors were again shooting up the town.

It was soon ascertained, however, those on the machines were boys about fourteen years old, and that they were discharging dynamite firecrackers in anticipation of the approach of the Fourth of July.

Officer Kern succeeded in capturing one of the mischievous youths but the others escaped. The prisoner left his machine at the station house as collateral for his appearance this morning. He was on hand shortly after the Police Court convened and was fined $2.50 for disorderly conduct. All the offenders were Washingtonians.

In this connection it may be stated that Chief Goods stated today that the law against the sale and discharging of fire works in Alexandria on the coming Fourth of July will be enforced to the letter. and, as was the case last year, those who may attempt to defy the state and city ordinances will be arrested nad fined in the Police Court.

AT SURPRISE TONIGHT.

The pictures at the Surprise seem to get better every day. Tonight's program includes a special two reel feature, "The Klondike Bubble," "Buddy's First Call," "Ben Wilson in the "Mystery of the Silver Snare," sixth of the series, and "A Snakeville Epidemic," a western comedy.

MAYBE it is an old fashioned idea this notion of putting all the value possible into the car itself—and as little as possible into overhead expense—

But it has given the Paige a positively dominant position among cars of medium price—

Ample capital for operating purposes—no bonded indebtedness—no excessive capitalization—no heavy overhead of any kind to be paid for.

Just a full dollar of car value for every dollar of the selling price.

Is it any wonder that the Paige is going to be oversold again this year in spite of increased production?

SPLIT BETWEEN VILLA AND CARRANZA.

The Mexican situation has been further complicated by trouble between Villa and Carranza, and now rebels are about to battle with rebels. Huerta can in the meantime watch his enemies fight with each other to a finish. The work of mediation in the meantime will be seriously clogged.

The Mexican issue is now at an acute stage, and the part the United States will be compelled to take seems to be apparent, and as the Gazette and other American journals suggested at first, intervention is the only remedy.

The work of bringing about an understanding between the hotheads of Mexico has ever been hopeless, and the longer conditions now prevailing continue the greater will be the task of interference.

The United States has for many years posed as the policeman of the western hemisphere, and the big stick in several instances has proved more efficacious than parleys with people who have no intention of removing chips from their heads.

Law books and international codes never appeal to people who fatten on disorders and who are bent upon defying law.

During the civil war an Alexandria official attempted to collect dues from the captain of a schooner which had arrived at this port. The captain was insolent and drove the officer from the deck. He reported the case to the the military authorities and they sent an Irish soldier with the official, subject to the latter's orders. They found the captain as defiant as ever, but when the Hibernian was told to bring him along and the skipper found a bayonet close to his coattail he concluded to pay the charge.

The officer in commenting upon the incident said "I'd rather have a bayonet in the hands of a determined man than all the law books in the State of Virginia."

TRIAL OF ASSAULT CASE

M. Gunnell Fined $100 for Assaulting Jeremiah Crilly.

The Corporation Court, Judge Barley, was occupied today in the trial of the case of the Commonwealth vs. M. Gunnell, charged with assaulting Jeremiah Crilly some time ago on Lee street, between Cameron and Queen.

The prosecution was conducted by Samuel G. Brant, Commonwealth's Attorney, and Messrs. R. D. Brumbach and L. H. Machen appeared for the defense.

The case was given to the jury about half-past three o'clock and half an hour later returned a verdict declaring the accused guilty and imposing a fine of $100.

FATHER STUMPED THEM.

A Test in Mental Arithmetic That Worried the Students.

They had a schoolboy and schoolgirl party at a Brooklyn man's house the other night. Father and mother were permitted to mingle with the young folks for awhile after the edge of the first fun had worn off. There were games that the elder folks knew nothing about, and they sat like wallflowers.

Finally a game of arithmetic was started by a boy who is considered the best cipherer of his class in the high school. After several problems had been given of an odd nature, over which there were much laughing and puzzling, father dared to speak up. Said he:

"Boys and girls, they used to give us this example in mental arithmetic when I went to school. I suppose it will be easy for you, but it's the best I can suggest to take part in the game." And he recited this couplet:

If a third of six were three
What would a fourth of twenty be?

The score of boys and girls present went at it. They wrinkled their brows, and they pursed their lips. The use of pencil and paper was not permitted.

The mathematician had not been among the first to try an answer. He was plainly a little perplexed. He asked to have the problem repeated and wanted father to reassure him that it was a mental arithmetic example. Finally he, too, gave an answer. But father shook his head.

"Well, then, papa, for goodness' sake tell us what it can be," said his daughters.

"The answer is seven and a half, and I'm surprised to see that I'm able to stump all you high school stars," grinned father. "Come, mother, we may as well depart. They don't play the same arithmetic games that we did."

The high school mathematician at first declared that father was in error. But next day he admitted that the answer was correct and that all had been stumped.—New York Sun.

Travel From New York to Philadelphia in Stage Wagon Days.

In the New York Gazette or Weekly Post Boy of May 9, 1768, appeared this notice:

The Price for each Passenger is Ten Shillings to Prince Town, and from thence to Philadelphia, Ten Shillings more, Ferriage free: There will be but two Waggons, but four sets of fresh Horses, so it will be very safe for any Person to send Goods, as there are but two Drivers; they may exchange their Goods without any Mistake.

Persons may now go from New-York to Philadelphia, and back again in five Days, and remain in Philadelphia two Nights and one Day to do their Business in: The Publick may be assured that this Road is much the Shortest, than any other to Philadelphia, and regular Stages will be kept by the Publick's obliged humble Servants,

To Prevent Exaggeration.

There was once a gentleman who, having killed a man, presented himself to the editor of a newspaper. "I have come," he said, "to tell you about a painful occurrence at my house. My brother-in-law and I had an argument, and I stabbed him, and then, in the excitement of the moment, I cut his throat. Knowing what exaggerated stories are apt to get into the newspapers, I thought I had better step around and tell you exactly what did happen."—London Spectator.

Ice Peaks of New Zealand.

In southern New Zealand the line of perpetual snow is much lower than it is in the Alps of Europe. It varies, of course, in different parts of the range; but, generally speaking, a mountain 12,000 feet in New Zealand carries as much snow and ice as one of 15,000 feet in the Swiss Alps, and New Zealanders point with pride to glaciers comparable to the Aletsch and the Mer de Glace.

RIVER BASIN ENLARGED.

Included in Improvement to Upper Machodoc Creek, Va.

Washington, June 17.—Recent improvements to the channel in Upper Machodoc creek, Va., by the United States army engineer service dredges Dalecarlia include not only the removing of the shoal spots in the channel, but the enlarging of the basin at the head of navigation, at Milford Landing, so that the steamers that will make landing as far up as Milford can turn around without difficutly to start down the waterway. The landings on Upper Machodoc creek are on the schedules of the steamers to and from this city, and the farmers and merchants in that section of King George and Westmoreland counties, Va., ship quantities of vegetables, fruit, grain and livestock to this city and buy all their supplies here, so that the business from the creek is of importance to Washington merchants.

It is stated that the Dalecarlia found the material taken from the bottom of Upper Machodoc so soft that to keep it from running back into the creek it was necessary to pump it 1,200 feet away from the banks. Upper Machodoc has about three landings on its five miles of navigable length.

MYSTERIOUS MURDERS.

Prosperous Georgia Planter Latest Victim of Deliberate Assassination.

Columbus, Ga., June 17.—Oscar McGintey, a prosperous planter of this section, was found dead near here Monday, a gunshot wound in the back of his head indicating he was murdered.

McGintey is the fourth man who has been murdered mysteriously in this vicinity within less than a month.

The first victim was William Hindsman, shot in the back of the head on May 23. On June 7, Roy Palmer was shot in the head and killed. On June 8, Frank Allen, who furnished the local police with information relating to the killing of Palmer, was found dead near the scene of Palmer's murder. He had been shot through the head five times.

Three men are now in jail here accused of complicity in the three killings which preceded the death of McGintey. They are David Warner, "Son" Jenkins and Luther Babbett.

ENDORSED AT HOME

Such Proof as This Should Convince Any Alexandria Citizen.

The public endorsement of a local citizen is the best proof that can be produced. None better, none stronger can be had. When a man comes forward and testifies to his fellow citizens, addresses his friends he is thoroughly convinced or he would not do so. Telling one's experience when it is for the public good is an act of kindness that should be appreciated The following statement given by a resident of Alexandria adds one more to the many cases of Home Endorsement which are being published about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read it

H. C. Smith, tailor, 919 King street, Alexandria, Va., says: "I hope my statement will be the means of getting othe rsufferers to use Doan's Kidney Pills and be cured, as I was. I didn't find anything that would cure me until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They made me well in less than a month and during the past two years I have had no trouble. The endorsement I gave at the time the cure was made still holds good"

PAVING BLOCK TO ARRIVE

Steamship Austriana to Bring Part of Cargo to Washington.

The Furness line steamship Austriana has arrived at Baltimore to discharge a portion of her cargo before coming to Washington with about 2,000 tons of paving block made from the slag of the iron furnaces of Middlesboro, England. The vessel will be about a week at the Maryland port and will then be brought around to this city by Captain John Barclay of the Maryland Pilots' Association. The Austrians was twenty-two days on the trip from Middlesboro to the capes of the Chesapeake contrary winds having detained her.

While she is a big steamer, registering 4,000 tons and being 345 feet long, forty-seven feet beam and drawing nineteen feet of water, she is, it is stated, not the largest steamship that has brought the block to Washington, her size being exceeded by two of the three steamers that have previously unloaded here. The Cranford Paving Company of Washington, is the consignee of the vessel.

MAY HANG NEGRO.

Question Raised by Recapture of "Judge Mann Stuart." Convicted Eight Years Ago.

Richmond, Va., June 17.—The recapture of "Judge Mann Stuart," a negro, who was sentenced to be hanged in Nottoway county eight years ago for the murder of a negro named Price, and who escaped from jail after sentence had been passed, will most probably raise the question as to whether the prisoner shall be hanged from a scaffold, as prescribed by the trial jury, or be placed in the electric chair at the penitentiary, as is now the law regarding the execution of state criminals.

The verdict of the jury sitting in the case of "Judge Mann Stuart," alias Algie Stokes, was that he "be hanged by the neck until he is dead." Since that verdict was rendered, however, the general assembly in 1908 passed an act abolishing hanging as a mode of capital punishment in Virginia, which act provided for the installation of an electric chair at the state prison. Unless Governor Stuart interferes, it would appear that the Nottoway murderer will be hanged in Nottoway county in accordance with the verdict of the jury. It is hought probable, however, that the Governor will take the necessary steps to prevent this old time method of execution.

Petersburg, Va., June 17.—The State Corporation Commission has granted a charter to the Alfalfa Lands Company, Incorporated, whose principal office will be here, with a capital of $500,000. The incorporators are Ex-Governor William Hodges Mann, president; William H. Harrison, Jr., vice-president; William Hodges Mann, Jr., secretary and treasurer, and T. O. Sandy, general manager. The company, it is stated, will control between 5,000 and 8,000 acres of land.

WARSHIP BUNTING

It Takes a Lot of Flags to Fit Out Uncle Sam's Navy.

USE COLORS OF ALL NATIONS.

Each of the Big Vessels Carries About Five Hundred Ensigns of Various Kinds and Sizes—Severe Tests to Which the Material Is Subjected.

Something like $80,000 a year is required to keep Uncle Sam's many naval vessels properly equipped with flags. In addition most every other department of the government appropriates various sums for flags for buildings and ships under its control. In all, it is safe to say the United States spends $125,000 a year for flags.

The largest factory belongs to the navy. In a large room, called the "flag loft," at Brooklyn navy yard half a hundred skilled needlewomen and quite a few men are kept constantly at work. Officially it is the naval flag making establishment.

Thousands of flags are required to supply the hundreds of vessels, from battleships to launches. On entering the flag loft the visitor's first impression is a blaze of color. Rolls of bright bunting are heaped everywhere. Long lines of electrically driven sewing machines, with women operators, are reeling off and putting the finishing touches to American and foreign ensigns of many different hues and sizes. In addition to our own flag, the navy has to keep a supply of every other nation in the world which has a coast line.

Each battleship, cruiser, gunboat or scout in the navy requires about 500 flags to outfit its flag locker properly. Heaped up, they make a pile shoulder high and twenty or twenty-five feet long. The foreign flags, incased in canvas bags, bear the name of the country stenciled on the end. The remainder, including flags for ordinary use, signaling, etc., are wrapped without bags and numbered at the end. Each flag has its separate place in the flag locker. A quartermaster would be rebuked severely if one became misplaced. Each ship follows the same order in this, so that any one familiar with the flag locker on one ship knows the location of every flag on any ship.

Uncle Sam pays about $3,500 to outfit each ship in the service. This multiplied by the number of ships will show that flags are not an inconsequential item of naval expense. The foreign ensigns are all made twenty-five feet long and thirteen feet wide. They are used whenever an American warship enters a port of another nation. The flag of the visited nation is hoisted at the top of the foremast while the American ship salutes. It is also hoisted when returning salutes of foreign vessels in American ports.

The most showy and expensive flags in the lot are those of foreign nations, although the United States has two flags that are close rivals, the flags of the president and vice president. They require the longest time to make of any flags. It takes one woman a month to finish each one. The president's flag is a blue ground with the coat of arms of the United States in the center. The life sized eagle with outstretched wings and other emblems are all hand embroidered in silk. The silk used costs $9 a pound. The vice president's flag is the coat of arms on a field of white. Both flags are made in two sizes, 10 by 14 feet and 3 by 5 feet. The larger is used on ships and the smaller on launches and similar craft.

The largest flag made is the United States ensign No. 1, which is 36 by 19 feet. It costs $40.

The bunting used in flag making is put to severe tests before the flag makers use it. One day a sample bundle is washed in soap and water. The next day the same process is followed with salt water. It is then exposed to the weather for ten days, thirty hours of which must be in the bright sun. If it doesn't fade in that test the government experts pass it. Then two inches wide of the warp is subject to a pulling strain of sixty-five pounds. Even with all those precautions a ship is allowed a new set of flags every three years, while the signal flags and ship and boat ensigns in frequent use must be replaced every few weeks.

One flag or pennant, rather, most used by the navy and least known to the public is the commission pennant. It is hoisted to the masthead of every naval vessel when it goes into commission and is never removed. It is a long, narrow streamer, blue at the staff, with thirteen stars in the field, arranged in one line, and the flag divided into two stripes, red and white, the red at the top. When ships long on foreign stations leave for home a new commission pennant is always hoisted. Usually it is one made and paid for by the crew. In some cases those "homeward bounders" stretch out 300 feet and, made of silk, cost a pretty penny.

The thousands of white stars used in our own and many other ensigns are made by an electrically driven machine which cuts them in fifty or a hundred lots. Eight different sizes of stars are used.—Kansas City Star.

Superfluity.

"You never admit having made a mistake!"

"What's the use?" asked Senator Sorghum. "When I make a mistake there are always plenty of people to talk about it without my joining in."—Washington Star.

There is no greater grief than to misery to turn our thoughts back to happier times.—Dante.
